By the Way . . . Governor Brown Declares Fiscal Emergency

On January 20, 2011, Governor Jerry Brown reaffirmed the fiscal emergency (as authorized by Proposition 58 of 2004) declared by then-Governor Schwarzenegger on December 6, 2010. In his proclamation, Brown notes the more-than $25 billion State Budget deficit and states that "decisive action is required to solve the state's persistent and severe budget problems, continue economic recovery, promote job growth, and preserve public education and the quality of life for all Californians."

In related State Budget news, the Senate and Assembly Budget Subcommittees begin hearings on the Governor's 2011-12 Budget proposals next week. The Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Subcommittee on Education will meet on Monday, January 24, and the Assembly Budget Subcommittee on Education Finance will meet on Tuesday, January 25.
