

LANGUAGE ARTS

ORAL AND WRITTEN LANGUAGE CONVENTIONS – Oral and Written Language Conventions

Grade 9\10	Grade 11\12
Students write and speak with a command of standard English conventions. 1. Written Conventions 9/10.1.10 use conventional spelling by referring to a dictionary or other resources 9/10.1.11 use complete sentences 9/10.1.12 use appropriate capitalization and punctuation (including italics, quotation marks and underlining) 9/10.1.13 use conventional or colloquial grammar as appropriate for the audience and purpose 9/10.1.14 use the parts of speech correctly, particularly verb tense, subject/verb agreement and pronoun antecedent agreement 2. Oral Conventions 9/10.2.1 demonstrate control of grammar, diction, syntax and usage	Students write and speak with a command of standard English conventions. 1. Written Conventions 11/12.1.10 manage with greater independence the conventions of standard grammar: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - independently manage the standard conventions of written language - use conventional spelling - use complete sentences - use appropriate capitalization and punctuation - use italics, quotations, underlining, footnotes/endnotes and bibliographic entries correctly - use the parts of speech correctly, particularly verb tense, subject/verb agreement, pronoun agreement and possessives 2. Oral Conventions 11/12.2.1 demonstrate control of grammar, diction and usage